Navigating the OPAC:

Finding resources in the media center

What is an OPAC?

The OPAC is the online catalog that keeps track of the materials we have in the library.

How do I search OPAC?

There are many different ways to search OPAC. The two most popular search types are...

Keyword Search

What is it? This search type looks for keywords that are connected with the book. This is a great search if you are not quite sure what you are looking for. It will give you broad results.

How do I use it?

- Type the word you are looking for into the search box at the top of the browser.

- Then click search

OR

Where do I find the OPAC?

You can open OPAC on the library computer by clicking the OPAC symbol that looks like this

Subject Search

This search type allows you to search using the controlled vocabulary of the Library of Congress or LCSH heading. It is a great search if you already know specifically what you want.

How do I use it?

- Click the advanced search button

- Toggle down to the Subject search

- Type in your search term and click search.

So you might use the following terms...

Keyword Search	Subject Search
Pets	Household animals or animal husbandry
Fiction about Pirates	Pirates--Fiction
North American Explorers	Explorers--North America
Space Travel	Interplanetary Voyages
Draw Cats	Cats in art or Drawing -- Technique
Spanish Dictionary	Spanish language -- Dictionaries
Martin Luther King, Jr.	King, Martin Luther -- Jr., -- 1929-1968. Or African Americans -- Biography.
