

As your librarian, I will...

- ❖ CHALLENGE those who try to censor your right to choose what you read.
- ❖ COMMUNICATE with your family, as they help guide your thought and choices.
- ❖ ENCOURAGE you to choose your own materials based on your personal interests, growth.
- ❖ GUIDE you towards the answers to your questions.
- ❖ INTRODUCE new and current issues that encourage you to think and gain a greater understanding of the world.
- ❖ PROVIDE all students access to all materials in the library regardless of age, race, ethnicity, gender, faith, or ability.
- ❖ SUPPLY new and current materials that address a variety of interests, abilities, and viewpoints.
- ❖ TRUST you to care for, and return materials in a way that respects everyone's right to high quality materials.

Your Right To Read

Jennifer Hamilton-December 4, 2010

Created using the ideas and wording from the ALA office for Intellectual Freedom Documents found at <http://www.ala.org/ala/issuesadvocacy/intfreedom> and school librarian Binki McKenna of Howard County Public Schools, Reservoir High School, Fulton, Maryland. This may be duplicated and posted.